

Times Higher Education online

BU staff and students can access Times Higher Education through our Bournemouth University subscription.

You can read the latest edition, published every Thursday, and browse back issues dating back to 2013. You can also search the archive for earlier articles and opt to receive a weekly email alerting you when the new edition is available. Our subscription also includes the THE app for iOS, Android and Kindle, so you can read THE wherever you are.

To use our institutional subscription from 1 April 2019 onwards, you will first of all need to set up a personal THE account. When registering, you must use your BU email address, to make sure that your personal account is associated with our institutional subscription.

To register for the first time

- Go to the Times Higher Education website at www.timeshighereducation.com
- Click on Register (top right)
- Complete the registration form, remembering to use your BU email address. You will need to choose a username and password - please note that your username will appear in public-facing parts of the THE website, such as comments on articles
- Click on Join us at the bottom and you will be logged in
- Once registered, just click on Login next time you use the service.

To access Digital Editions

- Login at the Times Higher Education website at www.timeshighereducation.com
- Click the Professional tab, then Digital Editions
- Simply select the issue you want to view.

To install the app

- Download the app from your usual app store
- Select either UK or global edition
- Click on the three dots (top right) and select account
- Click on Existing THE account
- Sign in with your THE username and password.

If you have any queries about registering for the service, please contact the Library's E-Resources Help Team at eresourceshelp@bournemouth.ac.uk
