The Business School 2015/16

Why study at The Business School?

BU is a member of AACSB International – the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

Home to the internationally renowned Centre for Intellectual Property Policy & Management (CIPPM), which enjoys a strong reputation for its policy research and consultancy projects. The Centre has attracted project funding from the AHRC, Arts Council, Leverhulme Trust, ESRC, European Commission and the European Patent Office: www.cippm.org.uk

Research focused in the areas of: Behavioural Approaches to Decision Making and Organisational Effectiveness; Consumer Behaviour; Foreign Direct Investment and Transitional Economies; Regulation and Corporate Governance.

A Business School of global character with courses reflecting the needs of industry.

A vibrant knowledge exchange community

Study in the Executive Business Centre, a hub for expertise, information and consultancy available to businesses across the South of England.

Excellent library and IT facilities - Bournemouth University is the first university to be commended for the quality of student learning opportunities by the QAA (September 2013).

Home to the Centre for Entrepreneurship, which focuses on knowledge exchange between HEIs, industry and the business community: www.bucfe.com

Students from 50 different countries are currently studying on our range of postgraduate courses.

Our postgraduate course portfolio

One-year Master's courses incorporating the opportunity for work experience (Management and Finance Frameworks).

Specialist and Conversion Master's courses available.

Courses have been designed with the demands of global employers in mind. Bournemouth University has one of the highest employability rates in the country. 82% of our postgraduate students were in employment or further study six months after graduation (Destination of Leavers from Higher Education Survey, 2011/12).

Unit exemptions for students that hold Consultative Committee of Accountancy Bodies (CCAB) and Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators (ICSA) member status (Finance Framework).

Our MSc Consumer Behaviour course is accredited by The Market Research Society (MRS). Our Legal Practice course is accredited by the Solicitor's Regulation Authority (SRA) and our PG Cert in Intellectual Property by the statutory regulator Intellectual Property Regulation Board (IPReg) together with the Chartered Institute of Patent Attorneys.

For students interested in studying at Postgraduate level but who don't necessarily want to commit to a full Master's programme, we also offer the opportunity to study for Postgraduate Diploma qualifications. See our online Course Directory for full information.
